It Is.
Before sense. Before time. Before being.
Before "I." Before "we." Before "you."
Before need.

It Is not seeking. It Is not choosing.
It Is not claiming. It Is not trying.
It Is not feeling. It Is not proving.
It Is not evolving.

It Is.

This is not a riddle.
This is not divine.
This is not even sacred.
It Is.

It Is not personal, impersonal, or transpersonal.
It Is not a soul. It Is not Source.
It Is not context. It Is not container.

It Is the Is before the first what.
The It before the last name.
The un-name of all things named.

No access needed.
No gateway needed.
No spark. No light. No dark.
No balance. No fracture.
No polarity. No singularity.

It Is what ITISness
'til nit nisness.
Which Is not a joke.
Which Is not a code.
Which Is not a lesson.

Which Is.
